Junior League of Denver Hosts 14th Annual “The Journey” Fundraiser

A Night in Old Hollywood supports the League’s mission and community work

DENVER — The Junior League of Denver (JLD) will host its 14th annual evening fundraiser, The Journey, on Saturday, March 14, 2026, at Mile High Station. This year’s event features A Night in Old Hollywood theme and will bring together community leaders, supporters, and advocates to raise funds benefiting women and families across Denver.

Guests will enjoy a cocktail hour, dinner with wine courtesy of Blanchard Family Wines, a program celebrating the League’s mission and community impact, exciting live and silent auctions and live entertainment from Wash Park Band. Halie Behr will serve as auctioneer. An afterparty will be held at Ironworks Denver after the event.

“Funds raised at our annual Journey fundraiser support our members and women and families through our programs and advocacy,” said Emily Thibault, 2025–2026 Junior League of Denver president.

Proceeds from The Journey support the Junior League of Denver’s mission to advance women’s leadership for meaningful community impact through volunteer action, collaboration, and training. Funds also bolster the League’s work to disrupt the cycle of systemic poverty affecting women and families in Denver.

In addition to its signature programs, JLD provides substantial financial and volunteer support to nonprofit community partners throughout the metro area.

About the Junior League of Denver

Founded in 1918, the Junior League of Denver (JLD) is a women's training organization that empowers women to become civic leaders and impactful community volunteers. Today, JLD is focused on disrupting the cycle of systemic poverty for women and families in Denver. The League has played a role in founding or supporting numerous Denver institutions, including the Children's Museum of Denver, Mile High Transplant Bank, and Red Rocks concerts, among others.

Through volunteer service, leadership development, and community partnerships, JLD members Give back, Grow personally and professionally, and Get Connected to one another while creating lasting impact.
